PROFILE

5 years ago I made aliyah from Finland. I love to travel and I am a true people's person. I have great communication skills and I am always up for a challenge. Constantly wanting to develop and improve myself.

Recently I made a career switch to become a full stack developer.

I am studying intensively every day. I find programming fascinating and after an intensive full stack boot camp course, I know this is the career I want to pursue.

Please visit my portfolio to see my projects.
