PINCHAS HODADAD

FULLSTACK DEVELOPER

Never stop learning. Loving every step of the way

In 2018, I have been through a career change to programming and discovered my true passion.
Programming demands attention to detail, problem solving and the use of creativity. A truly perfect blend. Moreover, being a self learner and in my thirst for knowledge, I am always learning something new and improving myself.
I am obsessed with clean scalable code, best practices, simplicity and pixel perfect UI. I have great communication skills. I work great with teams. I am truly a positive person to be around. With my dedication, passion and ongoing enthusiasm, I am certain I'll be a valuable asset to you.
